The action of First Monday in October takes place in a fictitious present in the city of Washington, D.C. Most of the scenes are within the offices of Dan Snow or Ruth Loomis in the Supreme Court building.

A fifteen-minute intermission will separate the two acts.

"The term of the Court begins, by law, the first Monday in October of each year and continues as long as the business of the Court requires...."

—Judiciary Act of 1789
